MEMORANDUM

TO: TJPDC Commissioners
FROM: Lisa Horanyi, TDM/RideShare Program Manager
DATE: March 26, 2009
RE: Clean Commute Day 2009 is Friday, May 1st

Please mark your calendars for Friday, May 1st and join us for the 19th Annual Clean Commute Day Celebration. This year's event will feature two host sites: The Free Speech Monument on the Downtown Mall and Clark Hall at the University of Virginia. Representatives of the Commuter Information Team* will be at these locations from 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM on Friday, May 1st. I hope you will take the opportunity to stop by if you are in the area.

We are also asking people to take the Clean Commute Pledge for the third year in a row. Taking the pledge means promising to use an alternative to driving alone to get to and from work for just one day this spring. In exchange for their pledge, participants will be eligible to win great prizes that have been donated from several local sponsors.

All event information, a list of prizes and the Clean Commute Pledge form will be available at www.CommuterInformation.com after April 1st. Please feel free to contact me with any questions. Thank you for your support.

* Commuter Information is RideShare, JAUNT, CTS, UTS and Greene County Transit.
